Logistics Executive Group Expands Leadership Coaching services into the Middle East & Africa

Dubai, UAE - Australian headquartered Logistics Executive Group which launched in Sydney in 1999 continues to grow and innovate, servicing the end to end supply chain market through Executive Search and Talent Acquisition, Logistics Academy and suite of Corporate Advisory services.

The “Leadership Coaching” service is focused on developing high potential leaders at various levels, helping them to realize their full potential. In addition to personal development and career progression, leadership coaching can focus on individual improvement areas such as Change Management, Time Management and/or Performance Management.

Leadership Coaching is typified by an engagement between the company / sponsor, the coachee(s) and the coach for agreed goals and measurable outcomes over a defined period. Coaching engagements may be one on one or with groups of up to 30 personnel and are designed with the individual’s and company objectives in mind.

Logistics Executive Groups qualified Leadership Coaching team includes the organizations Global CEO Kim Winter, and in the Dubai based MEA Regional business Regional Executive Search Consultant Mareike Walter-Paschkowski as well as HR Consultant & Executive Coach Niharika Davar.

Brian Cartwright, Managing Director Logistics Executive Middle East & Africa said; “We have expanded our Leadership Coaching service into the MEA region to further enhance the services we are able to provide our valued customers across the Middle East & Africa”

“Leadership coaching is a critical component of our whole of employment life cycle talent management services” said Cartwright
